Obituary

Bishop Walter B. Houston, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Sr. was born September 21, 1907 in Tyler, Texas, he was chosen by God at an early age, receiving the Holy Ghost at the age of (8) years old; he was destined to reach high pentacles in God.

He received his formal education at Jones Valley School. At age nineteen he met and married Ceaugry Scott from Mt. Pleasant, Texas. To this union ten children were born.

He became a member of The Jones Valley Church Of God In Christ under the Auspices of the late Rev. Fred Daniels, being faithful to God, he realized there was a call on his life, playing the guitar and singing, wherever he sang it was with the anointing of God and something always happened. He was mentored by the late Bishop S. D. Lee and traveled many places with him. He found himself yielding to the will of God. God led him into the fields where the harvest was plentiful; he began to reap the harvest.

To his surprise there was a word deep within him burning to be preached-and preach he did. God gave him to establish a work to do- he had to do it himself. God gave him to establish a work located at the corner of Nutbush and North Tenneha under a brush arbor in 1930 with only his family members, mother, wife, brother and cousins. Later his first new members were, Bro. Lectoy and Sister Adell Johnson (who are currently wonderful members).

Bishop Houston began to speak and God began to bring things to pass. God gave him the initiative to purchase land to build a church mostly with his own hands for the saints. God began adding members to the church. The word of God was preached without fear or favor. He began to go into other cities in Texas and establish a work. A Macedonia call for help led him to Whitehouse, County Line, Athens, Carthage, Center and Texarkana.

Bishop Houston loved people and gave his time when he was needed. He helped many young people and gave them a purpose in life sending promising young people to college. He only asked them to live holy. Many traveling ministers were housed in his home. His legacy will live forever. There are seventy-two years of faithfulness and dedication to his acclaim, Pastor, Chairman of Ordination Board, Superintendent and Bishop.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Ceaugry Houston, a daughter, Johnnie Spigner: He is survived by; his wife, Maudie V. Houston; one brother, Rev. Alexander Houston (Vickey) of San Francisco, CA; five sons, Walter B. Houston (Margaret) of Dallas, TX, Roy Lee Houston (Erma) of Tyler, TX, Robert Houston (Robbie) of Hawthorne, CA, Bishop David R. Houston (Lillian) of Tyler, TX, Rev. Arthur Houston (Margie) of Los Angeles, CA; four daughters, Lola B. Coulter of Carson, CA, Dorcas Miller of Tyler, TX, Gladys Mosley Porter of Carson, CA and Mary A. Stabler of Rowland Heights, CA; twenty-seven grandchildren, thirty-nine great-grandchildren and seven great-great-grandchildren.

*“For He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith;
and much people was added unto the Lord.”*

Acts 12:24
